Regulatory changes to China Customs Advance Manifest (CCAM) – Applicable for all cargo shipments involving the China Port

Dear Valued Customer,

Kindly be informed that with effect from 01 June 2018 as per the latest adjustments on the release of Order No. 56 [2017] by the China Customs pertaining to the changes in regulations to the CCAM, all BL Parties with cargo shipments involving the China Ports, regardless of export, import or relay will be required to comply with the following Additional Manifest Submission Requirements.

For Export Mainland China shipments, shippers are responsible to contact Penanshin Shipping Pte Ltd with the additional manifest requirement starting vessel ETA dated 1st June 2018 onwards.

Should these details not be provided, your consignment may be at risk of being held by the Chinese Authorities including relay shipments.

Additional Manifest Submission Requirements

1. TEL NO. for Shipper and Consignee.
2. UEN no. for Shipper.
3. USCI code or OC code for Consignee & notify party.
4. If the Consignor (shipper) or Consignee a natural person, the format is: "ID+ID number" or "PASSPORT+Passport number"; For natural person without ID or Passport or other valid certificate codes, fill in "8888+ other valid certificate number".
5. For commodity > please be specific, for example, we could accept as Dresses, cannot accept as Apparel.
6. HS CODE is required to be shown in the BL.

We will continue to keep you apprised of the situation, please contact Penanshin Shipping Pte Ltd if any further assistance and more details required.

Thank you for your business and continued support.

Best Regards,

Penanshin Shipping Pte Ltd.
